

For Immediate Release

-- HVHS Includes Grooming Service -- "A Grooming at Pomona Park"

POMONA, NY – September 19, 2006: The Hudson Valley Humane Society ("HVHS") announce the expansion of services at Pomona Park to include professional pet grooming. As of today, "A Grooming at Pomona Park" is available to the community for their pet grooming needs. Revenue from grooming will help support the animal welfare mission of the HVHS.

Virginia Olive, a professional pet groomer, has been perfecting her craft for more than 10 years. Ms. Olive's expertise in canine and feline primping has serviced clients in Rockland as well as north Bergen County. Her talent also includes small animals such as rabbits and guinea pigs!

"Everyone who has a cherished pet knows that they need pampering too," commented Ray Mundy, HVHS President. He continued, "The addition of Virginia's talent is a tremendous asset and her gentle treatment of senior pets is unsurpassed; we are thrilled to offer this service."

"A Grooming at Pomona Park" is available by appointment only Wednesday through Sunday from 9:00am to 5:00pm, call for pricing. Those interested in booking an appointment may do so by calling 845-354-2907 or 845-786-2684.

The HVHS is a private, tax-exempt organization, chartered as a society for prevention of cruelty to animals in New York State since 1891.

The HVHS is privately owned and operated and garners its financial funding from voluntary, private contributions.